President's Message

Happy October!

I have received inquiries about the countries I visited on my Great European Adventure in August. I visited seven countries: France, Italy, Germany, Czech Republic, Poland, Netherlands, and Belgium, which included ten cities: Paris, Rome, Firenze (Florence), Pisa (...went to the beach and swam in the Mediterranean Sea), Munich, Prague, Auschwitz, Cologne, Amsterdam, Brussels, and back to the romantic city of Paris. ...Oui, aventure fantastique!

The core value of being a LMMAR member is the opportunity

LMMAR-Sacramento Area Luncheon

The LMMAR Sacramento-Area Luncheon was held on Friday September 26, 2008 at the Thai Basil Restaurant in Lincoln. The luncheon was a success and a great time was had by all.

Twenty-nine Lockheed Martin Retirees were in attendance. It was a momentous occasion for Manny Lopez and Tony Paladino. They had not seen each other since High School in Santa Clara.

Little did they know they lived a few miles from each other.

At the luncheon, it was decided to select an Italian restaurant for the next December luncheon.

Let other LM Retirees in the Sacramento Area know about the LMMAR-Sacramento Area Activities. Contact Vern De Vincenzi (916) 408-4852 for information.

of meeting new friendships and renewing past friendships. I was delighted to hear that after many years, Manny Lopez and Tony Paladino attended the LMMAR-Sacramento Area Luncheon and met unexpectedly. They have not seen each other since attending high school. We should always be on the lookout for new members and keeping the LM kindred spirit.

Every organization should be working towards involving its members directly or actively to promote personal fulfillment of all its members. Recalling the leadership advice "...Don't solve problems, pursue opportunities" has been our mindset. We are not standing still just looking for and solving problems, but moving forward pursuing opportunities.

ties. We continue to stride forward as a professional class organization. Our future depends on our actions today. We want your ideas and inputs to decide and shape our future.

We have many members that have not paid their LMMAR Membership Dues yet. Please let us know of your LMMAR Membership intentions to continue or drop. Collecting unpaid member dues becomes a burden for us. Please help us by closing this issue and reduce our LMMAR Administration work. Remember, we are all volunteers.

Don't miss our next Luncheon, "A Tribute To Dean Martin", October 24, 2008, at Michaels At Shoreline Restaurant, Mountain View. Entertainment will be Matt Helm, a Dean Martin Impersonator. Signup early! See Flier. This will be enjoyable! ...I hope to meet you there!

It has been said that if you want to make sure something gets done, ask a busy person. It's busy people like you who have mastered the art of organizing their time, focusing their energy, and getting more done than any un-busy person would ever think possible. We need your help. We are in need of volunteers to fill strategic Executive Board positions as Secretary, Asst. Secretary, and Asst. Newsletter Editor. I encourage all members to participate, volunteer your help, have fun, and meet great people.

Be Happy!

SUNSHINE

Just received word from Pat De La Ossa of Mountain View, that her husband Pete has recently had a stroke. Pete is doing better, but still has a long way to go before a good recovery. We wish them both better days ahead as well as caring thoughts.

At the latest LMMAR-Sacramento Area luncheon was Randy Rasmussen looking very healthy and doing well after his recent heart by-pass surgery. At the last two LMMAR luncheons held in the Roseville / Lincoln area, I have been able to identify myself as the Sunshine Lady with hopes that members will share their news of other members with me, since they have met me in person. Sometimes it is uncomfortable to share information with someone you do not know or have never met!!!!

Have a great fall(weather that is!) and be safe , happy and definitely healthy!

Lockheed Martin-Built Trident II D5 Missile Achieves 124 Successful Test Launches In A Row

SUNNYVALE, Calif., August 26th, 2008 – The U.S. Navy conducted a successful test launch yesterday of two Trident II D5 Fleet Ballistic Missiles (FBMs) built by Lockheed Martin (NYSE: LMT). The Navy launched the unarmed missiles from the submerged submarine USS Louisiana (SSBN 743) in the Pacific Ocean.

The Trident II D5 missile now has achieved 124 consecutive successful test launches since 1989 – a record unmatched by any other large ballistic missile or space launch vehicle.

“In this recent test, Navy Strategic Systems Programs has again demonstrated the reliability and credibility of the Fleet Ballistic Missile,” said Melanie A. Sloane, vice president of Fleet Ballistic Missile programs, Lockheed Martin Space Systems Company, the Navy’s Trident missile prime contractor. “A long partnership combined with disciplined performance by the entire Navy and industry team in every aspect of this critical program has made each and every one of these 124 test launches a success.”

The Navy launched the missiles as part of a Follow-on Commander’s Evaluation Test. The Navy conducts a continuing series of operational system evaluation tests to assure the safety, reliability, readiness and performance of the Trident II D5 Strategic Weapon System, as required by the Department of Defense’s National Command Authority. The tests are conducted under the testing guidelines of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

For the tests, operational missiles are converted into inert configurations using test missile kits produced by Lockheed Martin that contain range safety devices and flight telemetry instrumentation.

First deployed in 1990, the D5 missile is currently aboard OHIO-class submarines and British VANGUARD-class submarines. The three-stage, solid-propellant, inertial-guided ballistic missile can travel a nominal range of 4,000 nautical miles and carries multiple independently targeted reentry vehicles.

Lockheed Martin Space Systems Company, Sunnyvale, Calif., is the prime contractor and program manager for the U.S. Navy’s Trident missile. Lockheed Martin Space Systems employees, principally in California, Georgia, Florida, Washington and Utah, support the design, development, production, test and operation of the Trident Strategic Weapon System. Lockheed Martin Space Systems has been the Navy’s prime strategic missile contractor since the inception of the program more than 50 years ago.

The test also involved the Lockheed Martin-integrated Navigation Subsystem that provides the highly-accurate and reliable navigation data required to support today’s stringent Trident Weapon System performance requirements. Lockheed Martin Maritime Systems & Sensors Undersea Systems business unit, Mitchel Field, N.Y., has been the Navy’s prime contractor for the Navigation Subsystem aboard FBM submarines since 1955.

SPOTLIGHT

Carol Safberg, LMMAR Executive Advisor.

We are proud to have Carol Safberg as our LMMAR Executive Advisor. Carol Safberg is Executive Vice President Operations/Chief Operating Officer at Star One (formerly LMSC) Credit Union. Carol has worked in the Credit Union industry for over 30 years; 28 of which have been at Star One. She has been a member of the Leadership Association for over 25 years. She earned the designation of Certified Manager from the National Management Association and was recipient of the Silver Knight of Leadership Award in 2006. In addition to serving as an Executive Advisor to the Lockheed Martin Management Association Retirees, she also serves as an Executive Advisor to both the Lockheed Martin SSC Leadership Association Board of Directors and the Lockheed Martin SSC Bay Area Chapter Executive Board of Directors. Carol is a big asset for our LMMAR professional class organization.
